

AUTISM: Keys To Early Identification

A Road Map created by the Lewis County Autism Coalition

Do You Know?

Typical Ages & Stages Of Development

If Your Child is Reaching the Developmental Milestones

If Your Child Is Showing Signs Of Autism

Questions to Ask:

What Is Typical Development For My Child's Age?

Should I Be Concerned about My Child's Development?

Where can I go to get my child screened?

Find The Answers!

- At your child's healthcare provider
- At your childcare center
- At early childhood education programs

- At a well child exam
- Your child's teacher
- Local parenting class
- Local school district
- Local special service agency

- By requesting a screening from:
- Your child's healthcare provider
 - Local special service agency

Autism: Finding Lewis County Answers

A Road Map created by the Lewis County Autism Coalition

Signs of Autism

- Not returning your smile or back & forth responses
- Not liking to cuddle
- Lack of eye contact
- Not responding to simple directions
- Not responding to name
- Seems distant
- Rocks/flaps hands
- Suddenly stops talking
- Not pointing or using gestures
- Not babbling by twelve months old
- Not using single words by sixteen months old
- Not using two word phrases by two years old

Lewis County Resources

- Your Child's Healthcare Provider

Screening Agencies:

- Lewis County Special Education Co-op
Phone: (360) 748-8844
- Centralia-Chehalis Student Support
Phone: (360) 807-7245

Early Childhood Education Programs:

- INTOT
Phone: (360) 748-4359
- ECEAP
Phone: (360) 736-9391
- Growing Together
Phone: (360) 807-7245
- Lewis County Head Start
Phone: (360) 736-1696
- Pope's Kids Place
Phone(360) 736-9147

Family Support:

- Parent to Parent
Phone: (360) 736-9558

State & National Resources

- Mary Bridge Developmental Center – Tacoma (253) 403-1400
- Tacoma UW Autism Center (253) 692-4721
- Seattle Children's Autism Center (206) 987-8081

- UW Child Development Clinic – Seattle (206) 598-4317

- Legacy Children's Hospital – Portland (503) 413-2200

Internet Resources:

- Child Development
<http://www.parenthelp123.org/infants/child-development>
- Autism Speaks:
www.autismspeaks.org
- Centers for Disease Control & Prevention (CDC):
 - <http://www.cdc.gov/ncbddd/autism>

For information, please contact Mary Chmelik (360) 736-9147 or chmelikarnp@popeskidsplace.org